

Sherri Snelling

Keynote Speaker, Workshop Leader

Sherri was a featured workshop speaker at the 2013 USC Women's Conference on Caregiver Wellness for the Sandwich Generation.

Sherri has spoken at several local Alzheimer's Association chapter conferences for both professional and family caregivers. Her most recent engagements were with the Milwaukee and Central California chapters as a keynote speaker on The Sandwich Generation Juggling Act – 6 Dimensions of Caregivers Wellness.

Sherri was the keynote speaker at the Milwaukee PBS-TV and Next Avenue Community Conversation televised event at the Milwaukee Medical Center speaking on The Sandwich Generation Juggling Act.

Sherri has spoken at the last five ASA annual Aging in America Conferences, In 2013 her panel presentations included: Mars v. Venus – Caregiver Gender Differences Dealing with Stress, Intergenerational Technology Solutions – Caregiving Tech, and in 2012: Re-Assembly Required: Why Midlife Boomer Women Must Rewrite Their Life Assumptions.

Sherri was the keynote speaker at the Hospice & Palliative Care of New York May, 2013 annual conference for health care professionals speaking on The Six Dimensions of Caregiver Wellness.

Sherri was the keynote at the May, 2013 WomanSage Salon Event speaking on From Hollywood to the Heartland – How to Prepare for Your Caregiving Close-up.

Sherri has spoken at the annual Boomer Summit conferences the last few years. She moderated a 2013 panel, The Alzheimer's Epidemic in America and spoke on a 2012 panel, Public and Private Partnerships: Formula for Success.

Sherri is the June, 2013 featured speaker at the First Republic Bank client event talking on The Health & Wealth Risks of Caregiving How to Prepare for the Future.

Sherri is the July, 2013 featured speaker at the Oasis Senior Center on Home for a Lifetime – How to Create Universal Design for Aging in Place.